

LITTLE FLOWER DEGREE AND PG COLLEGE
UPPAL, HYDERABAD-500039

As a part of the intra-collegiate literary competitions, the Department of Telugu conducted essay writing and story-telling competitions on 10 October, 2023. Students from all years and streams took part in the competitions. The objective of this competition is to test students' general knowledge in the current issues and their writing skill. Students actively participated in the competitions and performed well, making the programme a grand success. The judges were impressed with their talent and gave suggestions while the department received good feedback for the programme.
