

LITTLE FLOWER DEGREE COLLEGE
UPPAL, HYDERABAD

REPORT

National Seminar on Artificial Intelligence and Disease Diagnosis

Students from B. Sc II year Faculty of Microbiology, Department of Life Sciences attended National Seminar on Artificial Intelligence and Disease Diagnosis Organized by St. Francis College for Women, Begumpet on 19th January 2024. Students attended the sessions by Dr. Irfan Ahmed Ghazi, Department of Plant Sciences, University of Hyderabad in the seminar. Student participants in Video presentation competition were asked to send the video presentation. Two students Yashashwini, Edna, won 1st prize in video presentation competition and Shreya and Srinidhi won 3rd prize in video presentation. Edna from B. Sc., BTMC II year also participated in poster presentation competition. Students gained knowledge in scientific advancements and interacted with various scientist from various organizations

Resource person Dr. Irfan Ahmed Ghazi, Department of Plant Sciences, University of Hyderabad in the National Seminar session, Yashashwini, Edana, won 1st prize in video presentation competition and Shreya and Srinidhi won 3rd prize in video presentation. Edna from B. Sc., BTMC & MZC II year