Disabled-friendly and barrier free environment

The Little Flower Degree College has taken great care to provide the necessary facilities and foster an inclusive learning environment for its impaired students.

1. Ensuring that all types of impaired students can access the building, Restrooms, Library, and laboratory without any barriers.
2. Guaranteeing the efficiency and involvement of students with disabilities in both academic and extracurricular activities.
3. Adopting a suitable medium and method of teaching for the impaired students.
4. Providing assistance to the impaired students in the learning process after the class hours.
5. Providing assistance for the impaired students at the time of examination.
6. Permitting the impaired students to use their own personal assistive device in the premises.
7. All college staff members are informed on the services and facilities available to students with disabilities and assist them in using them.
