INSTITUTION INNOVATION POLICY

PREFACE:

Institutional innovation policy at LFDC encompasses a multifaceted approach aimed at fostering creativity, entrepreneurship, and forward-thinking within the college. At its core, this policy seeks to cultivate an environment where novel ideas are encouraged, supported, and translated into tangible outcomes that benefit both the college community and society at large.

SCOPE:

LFDC institution innovation policy spans across fostering a culture of creativity, research, and entrepreneurship, aimed at driving positive societal impact through continuous improvement and collaboration with diverse stakeholders.

OBJECTIVES:

- The innovation policy at LFDC is inclusive, encompassing students, faculty, and contributors involved in idea generation, artificial intelligence, and product development.
- Its core objective is to stimulate and aid students in nurturing innovative ideas and products.
- Long-term plans entail the establishment of an on-campus incubation center, fostering an environment conducive to innovation and research.
- The policy is subject to periodic review and amendments to ensure compliance with regulations and evolving needs.
- It embodies a collection of principles, strategies, and practices designed to cultivate an environment within the academic community that promotes innovation, creativity, and entrepreneurship
